ENTRY INFORMATION:

1. Every participant ensures that he/she will accept the regulations of show management.
The organizer has the legal house rights on the show grounds and is allowed to expel the participants from the show and the Roleski Ranch showgrounds.
2. NRHA classes are officially approved NRHA USA classes and will be judged according to NRHA rule book 2007. Therefore it is necessary that horses entering these classes have a valid NRHA USA competition license. The rider and owner of the horse are required to have a valid NRHA membership card. To enter Non-Pro classes, please make sure that the rider has a valid NRHA Non-Pro card.
3. The prize money in the NRHA USA approved classes will be paid out according to the Rulebook of the NRHA USA 2007.
4. Copy of the FEI HORSE PASSPORT of the nominated horse and copy of the horse's registration papers must be sent with the nomination.
5. Equipment: During the whole show riders may only use equipment that is allowed during the official show. The only additional equipment that may be used in the warm-up pen is a "running martingale" and/or "noseband", which may not be made of wire.

The sports management or personnel acting on their behalf, e.g. supervisor of the warm-up arena, is allowed to inspect the equipment at any time. They can demand the removal or modification of equipment. If the rider is not following instructions, concerning equipment or possible misuse of the horse, the rider and/or horse may be disqualified.

6. Subject to modification: This documents is subject to modification by the show management or the Roleski Ranch prior or during the show, if necessary.
7. Organizer is not responsible for any personal injuries or damage to the riders property which may incur as a result of participation at the show.
